As a valued Plank & Pine client, the ordering process is designed to provide you with a seamless and exclusive experience, ensuring you have access to high-quality furnishings that are not all readily available to the general public. Our commitment to excellence extends to the careful selection of vendors, with a focus on cultivating partnerships that prioritize superior customer service and satisfaction.

Once you have finalized your choice of both hard and soft finishes, typically during Phase II, the ordering process commences. At this point, we work closely with our esteemed vendors to provide you with easy-to-understand, customized invoices. These invoices detail the cost of each item, inclusive of any applicable taxes and shipping fees. The transparency of our invoicing process is aligned with our commitment to clear communication and ensures you have a comprehensive overview of your purchase.
